

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

$27,000 Awarded to Eight Douglas County Nonprofits

Douglas County Community Foundation awards third quarter 2023 grants to address mental health challenges and support nonprofits in our community.

[Douglas County Colorado, OCT 2023]. Douglas County Community Foundation (DCCF) awarded eight grants to local nonprofit organizations totaling $27,000 in its third quarter 2023 granting cycle. Four organizations received part of $22,000 in grants which were awarded to nonprofits who provide a mental health focus in Douglas County. Additionally, $5,000 in grants were awarded to four other Douglas County nonprofits to help support their missions to serve our community. Congratulations to the following grant recipients:

- Mental Health Grants
 - Douglas County Christian Counseling (douglascountychristiancounseling.org)
 - Backpack Society (backpacksociety.org)
 - Happy Crew (thehappycrew.org)
 - Southeast Christian Counseling Center (secounseling.org)
- General Grants
 - Douglas County Library Foundation (dcl.org/foundation)
 - Heather's Pantry Food Bank (heatherspantryparker.org)
 - Step Seven (stepseven.org)
 - Rocky Mountain Wildlife Alliance (rmwalliance.org)

DCCF partners with local nonprofits, of all sizes, to help them thrive in their missions. "Local grant making is just one way we help our community," said Mike Waid, Executive Director of DCCF. "We bring together donor partners, who entrust us as stewards of their financial gifts, with worthy and vetted local Douglas County nonprofit organizations to make a real difference in our community and help those in need."

About Douglas County Community Foundation

Douglas County Community Foundation (DCCF) is committed to responsibly managing philanthropic contributions, maintaining agile funds for emergencies, inspiring generosity, and providing support to local nonprofit organizations serving the needs within our community.

Media Contact:

Mike Waid, Executive Director
mike@dccf.org